"offensive" probing, Dr. Wecht!

Month Anniversary

...again saving MANY HAPPY RETURNS to myself, or rather to that sprightly brainchild (you would I say "Gerein bratt") of mine, TRUTH LETTER. I don't know how many more there will be, but none could be happier, I guess, than the present one with the first glimpse of light discernible at least at the end of the long dark tunnel, thanks mainly to the help of Dr. Wecht with the truth at last in motion, we may get some real action and ... of course that lying incubus, Richard Nixon, is tossed into the ... along with his whole nasty gang of professional ...

Just in time for the ... celebration, I have just received from a lady in Leeds, England ... saying, "Dear Mr. Joesten - I have just heard about your TRUTH LETTER ... to contribute to your mailing list, - also to buy some of your ... but would much rather have signed copies from you. Are they still available ... all of your former books and I think between you, you are doing a marvellous ... etc."

But ... there are also those distressing letters like the one I received ... of the earliest and most devoted assassination researchers who ... decided not to renew my subscription for the time being, ... on the idea that the truth concerning ... during the foreseeable future, if ever. ... about seven years and now I have become resigned to ... best regards, etc."

... frustration ... despair and utter ... resignation will spread as ... in disgust and public interest ... precisely why the rest of us must stand ... the fight!

... that some of it must have been ... Dr. Wecht had already ... at the ... however, ... truly ... the whole depth of the ... very thorough ... of diagrams and mapping ... used the tools of his profession ... transparent grids which were
