Dear Mrs Meagher,

As one of the few critics uncompromised
by The Garrison fiasco,
I wanted to ask you
this question.

Do you believe that given the reach of Garrison's staff and the deep afforded him
by many of the critics
themselves for over two years that it is still probable that any new evidence exists?

Of course, many of his actions defy rational

Explanation.

The subpoena for Fred Lee Christman of Tacoma who Garrison alleged was a C.I.A. agent was the most bizarre when it later turned out that Mr. Christman had perpetrated the Newy Island Flying Saucer Hoax!

I enjoyed your excellent book, your articles in "The Minority of One" and your devastating review of "The Kennedy Conspiracy".

I asked Mr. Flammonde about the Shaw Trial and he replied, "Jim wasn't ready because he never thought that the case would ever come to trial."

Sincerely,
Edward R. Williams
