Dear Mrs Meagher,
Re the enclosed
article, it is unfortunate that the media emphasis has been attacking Garrison and by implication
validating The Warren Report.

Of course, the power of a local D.A. can be abused and such acts
cannot be mitigated
but far more grave
is the allegation of Law by The Federal Government.

The statements and acknowledgements of Gordon Novel clearly indicate illegal acts by C.I.A. personnel committed within the confines of The United States where it was determined they had no jurisdiction.

Later, The Raus case revealed that the Agency could engage in domestic acts, under provisions that are "secret" and which can be read only at C.I.A. Headquarters!

Indeed, the revelation of "Assassination Schools" by Robin Moore, the activities at Fort Holston the covert training of foreign troops in Latin America, and The United States, The Green

Berut Affair - all suggest that the most informed observer may be completely uninformed of actual events.

The unprecedented
growth of intelligence agencies since the passage of The National Security Act of 1947
is the largest contributory factor.

Be the incident
The Kennedy Assassination or Tonkin Bay, the Citizen cannot judge
the "evidence" because he does not have access to it

Does The C.I.A. kill Kennedy or Mr Garrison alleges?

The confirmation
or reputation of such charges, like much

recent history, may rest in classified
archives.

This secrecy makes a mockery of consent
by the government for who can consent without knowledge of what he is consenting to?

To dismiss this concern as "The Tarnment of Secrecy" is quite artless of Mr. Epstein.

Sincerely

Edward R. Williams
