Dear Sylvia,

I thought that you would find the enclosed article of interest. Note the striking parallels to Nov. 22, 1963 even down to "the creation of a dummy sponsor", oil interests, to confuse investigative efforts.

In A Short Course In The Secret War. Christopher Felix, a pseudonym for a high ranking U.S. Intelligence Agent, describes such a procedure.

An entire U.S. operation was once financed by a national (false) oil millionaire, for whom a life history had to be created.

Sincerely,
D. A. [unclear]
