Dear Sylvia,

Thank you for the interview and The N.Y.T. correspondence. Your remarks were harsh but justified.

With propaganda of this sort, no dialogue is even possible. Of course, the altered Leonard review was a preview of Coming Attractions - - - - -

How closely The Pentagon Papers resemble The Warren Report even in The Gravel Edition! By deletion of key meetings, the reader is left to draw the conclusion of a N.F.K./L.B.N. continuity of policy, a concept shattered in even so pedestrian a work as Roots of Involvement by Marvin Kell and Eric Adee.

Turner's Power On The Right met his previous "standard".

I have little optimism that Dr. West will gain "the right" to inspect the autopsy material
but one hopes - - - .

Sincerely,
