

Dear Sylvia,

Enjoyed our conversation even if you haven't broken
the case.

Yes, similar seems to be yet another Roover, an impression one got
from his account.

Braden (a non-person in The Volume, I believe) is a legitimate suspect albeit this in itself means little. Noyes
may or may not have substantive data. It's uninteresting because Magia in CIA sponsored assassination attempts against Castro and used oil
men as a false sponsor.

The Ramal Study is probably unimportant
and misrepresentational in the tradition of Ramparts.

As for the status
of the autopsy material,
"Neal can ponder the
"integrity of The Establishment."
Keep me posted.

Best Wishes,

P.S.

The reference to Bradley appears on pages 158-9 of Special Unit Senator.
