OF APPLIED ARTS AND TECHNOLOGY

Dear Sylvia,

The recent revelations reaffirm the value of your prodigious efforts.

The declassified abortive versions have classic lines such as Russell's wise dictum that "They (The CIA) will do anything" that they can do us or McCloy's hope that a rumor could show that Oswald fired from the front. Since the W.C.
Ames Oswald was behind Kennedy, the hope does appear quaint.

Roffman's book is not in your league and is far below "Rush To Judgement", also. A dull, often retale method, "Presumed Guilty" attacks Popkin for his
"stealing" of Oswald's work, has far avoiding the political context etc.

Raffman avoids much of the recent data because (one assumes) it belongs to Haredi! The style is Ovatchky.

Hope you are in good health.

Sincerely,
