On December 27, 1963, MARY SUE BROWN, 6105 Singing Hills Boulevard, Dallas, Texas, stated that about three weeks ago, an individual named RICHARD CARR, who resides on North Bishop Street, Dallas, Texas, had told her that LEE HARVEY OSVALD had not assassinated President KENNEDY. CARR is a friend of Mrs. BROWN'S sister, ELSIE JOHNSON, who resides at the same address as Mrs. BROWN. A friend named HOLLY JORDON also heard this individual make this statement concerning the fact that OSWALD did not assassinate the President.

According to Mrs. BROWN, CARR was making an application for a job at a building which was under construction near the court house at the time President KENNEDY was assassinated. CARR told her and the others that he was about five hundred yards from the place where the President was assassinated and that he had seen the individual who fired the gun from the Texas School Book Depository Building, and that it was not OSWALD. He said this individual wore a hat, horn-rimmed glasses, and was of athletic build. CARR told them that there was a Negro man with a gray-colored car waiting for this individual after the assassination, and that the man who did the shooting got into this gray car. CARR told Mrs. BROWN and others that there were four or five other steel workers on the building under construction near the place Where the President was assassinated, and that they likewise saw the assassination.

Mrs. BROWN stated CARR was sober at the time had made the statement and although she did not know him well, he did not seem to be a braggart or to be joking when he told the aforementioned story.

On January 4, 1964, RICHARD RANDOLPH CARR, 738
North Bishop, advised that on the morning of November 22, 1963, he had taken his wife and child to the Parkland Hospital, arriving there at approximately 11:30 h.M. He advised he left his wife and child at the Parkland Hospital and proceeded to the downtown area of Dallas, Texas, attempting to locate employment. He advised that shortly after mean on November 22, 1963, he was attempting to locate the foreman in charge of the steel construction at the new court house presently under construction, located at the corner of Houston and Commerce Streets, Dallas, Texas.

CAPR advised he made inquiry with one of the employees and they informed him the foreman was on the minth floor, at which time he, CARR, started walking up the steel stairway of the building under construction and when he reached approximately the sixth floor, he looked toward the Texas School Book Depository (TSBD) building and observed an individual described as a white male, wearing a hat, a tan sportecat, and wearing glasses, looking out of the top floor window. A few minutes later, he heard sounds which he believed to be backfire of an automobile and shortly thereafter heard a second sound, and looking toward the triple underpass, he saw several individuals falling to the ground. CARR advised he did not look at the TSBD again and immediately proceeded down the staircase with intentions of going over to the triple underpass to see what had happened. Upon reaching the ground, CARR advised he proceeded to the Houston Avenue and Commerce Street intersection, at which time he observed an individual who he believed to be the person he saw carlier on the top floor of the TSED building.

assassination until he reached home at approximately 2:00 P.H.

CARR advised that from his location on the steel structure of the new court house building, it would have been impossible for him to observe the lower floors and entrance of the TSBD, and that from his position he could only see the top floor and roof of the TSBD and the ground area surrounding the triple underpass.

CARR denied making any statements to the effect he had observed an individual fire a gun from the TSBD on November 22, 1953, and he also denied observing anyone leaving the entrance of the TSBD and getting into a gray car.
