The following investigation was conducted by
SA KENNETH R. ALBERT:

AT DALLAS, TEXAS

On November 27, 1963, T. A. VINES, Constable, Precinct 7, 410 South Beckley, advised he received information from an individual who desired his name remain confidential that a white female named LISA, who is employed at the Youngblood Restaurant on Colorado Street, was at the corner of Houston and Elm Streets at approximately 11:40 a.m., November 22, 1963. This unknown individual stated LISA was a quiet girl but enjoyed talking very much. He stated when he observed LISA standing on the corner she appeared to be looking up at the building from which the shots were fired that killed President KENNEDY. This unknown individual invited LISA into his automobile and drove her to work. He stated she appeared in a very nervous state and hardly said a word during the trip. He stated when he let her off at work, she was visibly shaken, and he inquired as to what she was doing at Elm and Houston, and she said she went there to see the President. Mr. VINES stated this unknown individual reported this information to him, and he thought it should be brought to the attention of the FBI.

On November 27, 1963, LISA KITCHEN, 2233 Annilles, Stevens Park Apartments, advised she is employed as a cashier at Youngblood's Restaurant on Colorado near Zangs Boulevard. She stated that every morning when she comes to work, she has to catch a bus at the corner of Houston and Commerce at approximately 11:30 a.m. She advised that on Friday, November 22, 1963, she was at the corner of Commerce and Houston at approximately 11:25 and walked over to Elm at Houston for the purpose of seeing persons gathering in the area and seeing the decorations in the preparation for President KENNEDY's appearance. She stated she heard the President would not arrive for another hour and remained only a few minutes. She stated at approximately 11:35 or 11:40, ROBERT KENNEDY, employee of an air conditioning company who does work for Youngblood's Restaurant, stopped his truck and asked her if she was going to work. She stated she was and he stated he would be glad to drive her. She stated he drove her to work and let her off at the restaurant at approximately 11:55 a.m. She stated she had no particular reason for being at Houston and Elm except she was inquisitive as to what
