Dear Ms. Meagher,

For ^{the} last year I've been ^a most enthusiastic and grateful reader of your books. They were of great help in my work on a documentary book about Kennedy assassination which will present this tragedy for a Russian-speaking reader for a first time. Mr. Penn Jones provided me with your address. Since my feelings of admiration for the fighters of Warren Commission cover-up are directed at you as well I'm enclosing a copy of my letter to him where this feelings expressed as ~~was~~ accurate as my awkward English allowed.

He answered me some questions of this letter and provided with addresses of Mary Ferrell who kindly answered my letter and of Judge Griffin to whom I'm going to write. But what I really need now is a live conversation with a good specialist of your status in which I could test some of my findings and conclusions. I will be in New York between November 1 and 4. Do you think you could spare some of your time to meet me and to share your knowledge ~~of~~ with me? I would be most grateful for a positive answer for this request.

With best wishes, most sincerely yours,

Igor Yefimov
