& requests re 26 volumes*

September 17, 1985

Dear Mrs. Meagher,

Almost a year has passed since our last meeting. Some events have taken place during this time:

1. We moved from Michigan to New York area (in January, see address and telephone above).
2. I visited Dallas, took a look at some important spots of the drama, took pictures, met with Mary Ferrell (whom I liked a lot), talked with Gary Shaw and some other people.
3. My first book in English was ~~not~~ accepted and is going to be published by Philosophical Library this October.
4. After a long break caused by all difficulties of relocating our business from Michigan to New Jersey I am now back in writing my book on Kennedy of which I have about 60% completed.

In connection with this I want to ask you one great favor. Could you lend or rent me for 6 months your 26 volumes of testimonies? I know what a precious thing it is now, how rare and expensive it's become. So I'm quite willing to give you all guarantees you'd find proper in this case. If you decide that it is too much worry and uncertainty to lend such an important collection to a person hardly known to you, could you at least consider a possibility to lend me 3 or 4 volumes at a time for a shorter period? There is no need to explain to you, that working on the book like this one I have to check with testimonies sometimes every five minutes so the use of the library (the closest to me with this collection is Columbia University) can't replace ~~the~~ having the volumes on ~~your~~ one's own bookshelves.

I will be most grateful for positive reply,

most sincerely yours,

Igor Yefimov
