Dear Harold,

Here we go again with JAMA. Copy enclosed.

I recorded the PBS Nova program. I looked at it last night and it is very clear. Perhaps the best I have.

I am sure you will have some interesting stories to tell me about Robert Groden. I will probably bring a copy of the Zapruder film. The special with James Earl Jones was mostly b.s., but it has an excellent copy of the Zapruder film as well.

I was mildly disappointed that you have already given all the photographic evidence to the library, however, perhaps that will make it easier for me to get copies of any you think I should have. I was able to get copies from the Cooper Archives for $6.00.

Thanks for the article on Jack Kent Cooke.

I hope Valenzuela does well for the Orioles. We have already given up on the Cubs. Looking forward to seeing you soon.

Sincerely,

William L. Neichter

P.S. Thanks for the calendar. Suits my purposes well. WLN
