Dear Bill,

After a slightly earlier start this a.m. got Chapter XXVIII read and corrected, more or less, 'til xeroxed and it is ready to be mailed to NY. Started XXIX and then the mail came and we had to do some shopping. If it does not get too long it will be the last save for one on the Judenrat and one on Failure Analysis. On which I now have enough. I'd still like any clippings you see but I did get a response from them that will do.

I may have some conclusions or that and the bastard may be one.

On those pictures, I'd like to get two sets and pay for them, one for each sister. Glad you sent them to the fellows because Wrone said he'd like them and I knew the others would.

The Madison library told Wrone that Martindale, Hubbell says that Posner went to a Gannon Law school in Erie, Pa. I know that he'll do or say anything but when he says he went to Hastings/Berkeley, more than he told ChiTrib, for him to lie on that could be to invite disaster. I think he is a wretchedly bad man but not that he is crazy. I've not been able to find anyone in DC or NY where there are better library facilities to do a rundown on him. And I hate to take the time to go find a Martindale locally. I'm sure nobody here keeps the old ones. No reason to.

I'd like to find an index to WW II. The printer printed it when he was supposed to wait for me to bring the index in. Lil did it. But we cannot find a copy. I think I asked Wrone and he has none. If we find one I'll send you copies.

I have yet to be convinced that Arafat really wants what you and I consider peace. I hope I'm wrong.

Our best to you both,

Harold
