Dear Harold:

I need a favor. I need Dave Wrone's home address. Please include it with your next letter.

I enclose two reviews of Reeves' new book on Kennedy. One reviewer claims Kennedy had the most disastrous record in foreign policy. Perhaps he has forgotten Mr. Johnson and Mr. Nixon! The Wall Street Journal review also states Dan Quayle is better prepared to be President than JFK was-- however, I would prefer JFK to skipper any ship I was on either a PT boat or the ship of state.

I am glad you enjoyed the photographs. I have ordered reprints of your family pictures for you. It will take about a week to get these back and I will forward them to you as soon as they are ready.

Sincerely,

William L. Neichter
