Dear Harold:

Just a quick note, we are trying to get ready to go to Chicago to visit with Betsy's father, Turkey City, I'll be ready for a fat farm when I get back! Probably ready now!

I got the Sunday Washington Post, but the weekly ones were not available locally, I'll copy them and send them back to you. You did not send me the Monday one, you wrote you missed one.

The national coverage of the 30th was very bad. The best was the local ABC affiliate, which said "after 30 years, the public just wants the truth". Plain and simple.

A friend said that on the Larry King radio show, Clint Hill said he did not think Oswald fired a shot. I'll try to get a transcript. I have a few minor things to send you. I note that Clinton thinks Oswald acted alone. I'd send him a copy of Whitewash I&II but I don't want to be on that Secret Service list of nuts.

I have an extra of the PBS special if you want it. The interview with the Odio sisters was interesting. The false Oswalds always jolt me back to reality whenever I think I'm off the beam. To me, the Odio situation is perhaps the most credible of the imitators.

The more I see, the more I admire Chip Selby. That boy is one hell of a documentary maker! My family thinks I am less of a nut after they see Reasonable Doubt.

I thank you for all the stuff you send me. I don't want to waste your time. I don't write you unless I have something to say. I appreciate your compliment in your last copy of the letter to Gallen. If you can't get contracts, I'd shop your books around. I have one literary agent who would look at them.

I guess we are sort of ending up with an annex to Sen. Cooper's archive, with your books and such. I will send copies of the Rst article to Bill Cooper at UK. Fifty years from now they will wonder how Cooper's archive ended up with all this alternative material. A conspiracy between me and Bill Cooper!

Say hello to Lil. I miss her! Guess we should call her Dr. Lil. I haven't had any catfish since I was at your house. You are damn lucky to marry a gourmet cook, intellectual, typist, editor, and all around sweetheart.

By the way, I looked at Livingstone's book at the store. How did you ever get to be a Communist working for the Hunt family? He is even worse than you said.

Sincerely, Bill

PS I saw Agent Rookstool on the CBS documentary.
