Dear Harold:

We are trying to get out of town Thursday to Chicago to visit Betsy's father. While there, I'll try to prod two of the largest suburban bookstores to stock Selections and Case Open.

I enclose an editorial about the secrecy of the assassination papers from the Corbin Times-Tribune! We still get this paper, where we used to live. The local Courier does a poor job of reporting Eastern KY news.

I saw some of the H.R. Haldeman diaries on Nightline last night. Nixon was even more of a racist and anti-Semite than I thought. And I never did have a very high opinion of him. It is a miracle that we never had a nuclear war with people like that running the world.

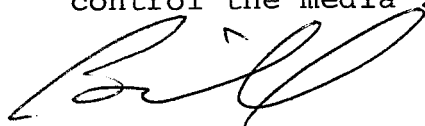

Am I correct in reading Case Open that some ammo for the Mannlicher was found in the Payne garage? The James Tague info about never being interviewed by Posner is amazing.

Glad Hana liked the glasses!

I agree that it was a high risk strategy for Posner to just make up interviews, etc. in Case Closed. Hope Case Open can get some PR.

There was something that I wanted to ask you, but my brain has switched to neutral. Next time. Again, I appreciate all the time you and Lil have taken with me over the years.

Quick thought. Bruce Babbitt took political contributions from Delaware North (Buffalo mob) in 1970's. I think this would have been beaten to death if Clinton had named to Supremes. Also, on Nightline Stephen Ambrose said Haldeman diaries showed Nixon to be even more of antiblack and antiSemite than he thought, too. Nixon was nuts on blaming all on blacks and those pesky Jews who "control the media".

PS. I note that Haldeman quoted Billy Graham about warning Nixon about "Satanic Jews". I doubt that Graham did any such thing. If Nixon's top aide is willing to say this about him, what did he do that would be too bad to mention?

I only know one movie star, Noah Wyle. He is the nephew of one of my best friends. I have heard about him for years, but never got a chance to meet him because he lives in LA. His mom was visiting home in Louisville, and I met Noah. My friend had told him all about me, apparently that I am a "character". So I lived up to my billing, told him all about you, and gave him a copy of Whitewash I, and a copy of "Reasonable Doubt." It is ironic that he had just finished filming a cable TV movie in Eastern Europe, a rewrite of Camelot.

I also met Vaughn Meader, the First Family comic whose career took a nosedive on Nov. 22, 1963. He is a friend of a friend, and now makes a living playing honky tonk piano. He is a nice guy, who does not want to talk about his former career as a mimic of JFK. Let's just say that I don't think Vaughn has missed many bar calls in the last 30 years. He used to be married to a girl from Louisville and comes back Derby week.

PPS If Nixon was right and "those Jews" control the media, why don't you just call up one of your buddies who is an Elder of Zion, and tell him to put Selections and Case Open on the best seller list?

The level of ignorance in the nation's leadership is frightening. I have always felt that the American people are much wiser and smarter than their leaders. The polls on the high percentage that disbelieve the Warren Report is evidence of that.

SATURDAY ON CABLE

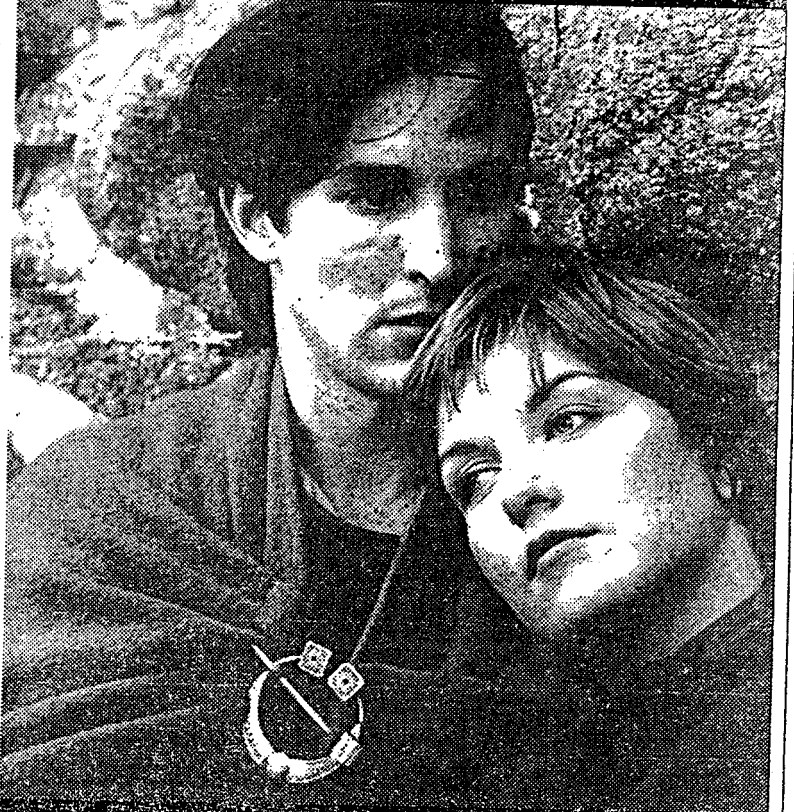

Guinevere

The mystic tale of Camelot as told through the eyes and heart of the warrior queen Guinevere. (Sheryl Lee). In this medieval era where power and vengeance lead to murder and chaos, a young and beautiful Guinevere must fight for love and her ideals.
