Dear Harold:

Enclosed is a letter concerning Mrs. Porter. Feel free to send her a copy. This is like the case of Malcolm Forbes. A powerful man, nobody wrote any articles about his being gay until he died. Dead men cannot sue, unless certain specific situations are involved. When he was alive, Liberace once sued a British publication for saying he was gay and won $50,000. Then when he died, all found out he was gay!

I will find out the source for the plane article. I believe it was an aircraft publication. Not only have they built this plane, I have seen it! Two years ago, at 2:00 a.m. watching the Perseid meteor shower (in August), I saw a red navigation light moving at tremendous speeds through the night sky. I am not a pilot, but I have spent some time in the co-pilot seat, and I knew at once it was a ^{super} high speed military plane. I told my father, and he thought I have finally completely lost my mind. First JFK, and now this! But a few weeks later, there was an article about it in the Wall Street Journal. I do not have that article. I have also seen the "doughnuts on a rope" vapor trail on a TV show. Pulse engine.

I believe Marina Oswald Porter may be "afraid" of you because you wrote some rather harsh things about her in Whitewash I and II. Although true, you were pretty harsh on her. She probably has seen them.

I am glad you liked the letter to Jane Norris. So far, no response. I always try to be careful what I say when I am "riding on your coat-tails". I will follow it up.

Okay-- 2/3rds remainders goes to Barbehem, and 2/3rds of the last 1/3rd goes to Wrone. Does the other 1/3 of the 1/3 go to McKnight? This would be the residuary estate.

Dave Wrone sent me a copy of his history address. Excellent!
Dave has been very nice to me.

Write to you soon.

Sincerely,
