Dear Harold:

I have not read Califano's book on LBJ because I just bought it. I do have a lot of respect for Califano. He has a few statements about the JFK murder, noting that LBJ did think it was some sort of conspiracy. I shall copy those parts for you.

I enjoyed the Newt article. I enclose a few of my own. I am copying some of these for Wrone. ✓ Berry Amadio.

As far as the barracuda, we do not have a picture because he threw the hook at the boat. When you catch and release them, you have to be careful not to hurt the animal. Or lose a few fingers. I do have a pic of me holding a 5 1/2 foot cuda I caught a few years ago, who jumped in the boat after being hooked only 30 seconds. We let it calm down and released it. I have some fish stories! As far as the shed on Hemingway's garage roof, it is his writing studio. Nice. I thought of you when we saw it.

I like to think of myself as a light tackle Hemingway. My goal is to put Betsy on a world record fish someday. However, my writing career is not quite as far advanced, the local weekly paper did not even print my letter to the editor supporting the UK library.

I am sending you an article on the Liberty Lobby, which mentions Mark Lane. They sure are a right wing bunch of SOB's. Anti-semitic to the core. I got it in my head that Lane was Jewish. And I have never been a believer that Jews were not killed, Betsy's father liberated some of the concentration camps. His pictures are ungodly. I knew little about the Liberty Lobby except what you have told me. Lane is crazy to get hooked up with this bunch. Which is why he has blown any credibility he once had, what an oddball.

I never paid much attention to anti-Semitism until you started sending me some articles on it. I have a client that lives in Slovakia, part of the old Czechoslovakia. I asked him about it. He said Slovakia is sort of the more backward part of the old country. Told me he knows a doctor who is married to a Jew. Told me that he mentioned this friendship to his students, who told him, "You know, she is a JEW!" He said so what, so they told him all the evils of those pesky Jews. He was appalled, could not believe how people still are.

Still reading the stuff you sent me, not in order. I liked the Cui Bono part, Allittle more speculative than most of your writing.

I did get a nice thank you note from Jane Norris. Enclosed.

One of the reasons that I think JFK's death is always remembered is that it occurred right before Thanksgiving. The whole nation was just getting in the holiday spirit, and then that. Last year, one of the NFL football players said the biggest mistake the NFL ever made was to play on the Sunday after the JFK shooting. After 30 years, he still feels bad about that.

We still have a Democrat congressman, Mike Ward. He beat a moderate Republican woman for Mazzoli's old seat. A third party anti-abortion candidate took away many of the Republican's votes, she was prochoice. So the right to lifers feel they defeated her, Politics make strange bedfellows, that's for sure. Democrat won by 472 votes, glad I voted absentee.

Speaking of military waste, the Navy has 100 dolphins they have trained for warfare. Now they have to try to prepare them for release in the wild. The hotel we stayed at in the Keys is going to get a contract to do this. Sugarloaf. Article enclosed. The Navy can piss away more money on stupid stuff. Fighting dolphins! What next, training killer whales to eat Soviet frogmen?

I'll keep reading and write soon. I thought Summer's article was typical part accurate and part made up. He did give Ragano a hard time a little, though. And he at least gave Case Open and you a nod.

SAy HI to Lil.
