Dear Harold:

Today is National Clean Off Your Desk Day, but it may as well be National Go Crazy Day as far as I am concerned. It is hard to believe that this much paperwork can be generated by such a small law practice.

I will send you your will by next mail. now that I know the question I recently asked you. Sometimes these things get pushed aside, but there is really no excuse on my part.

I enclose a chicken article that I think you will find interesting. I'm telling you, there is really a market for fresh poultry that proves you were 20 years ahead of your time.

I recently got a Nov. 25, 1966 LIFE that mentions you and the other books of that era. My flea market-antique buddies find this stuff for me, and I add it to the pile. This is the one where Gov. Connally insists that he was hit by a separate bullet than JFK.

Last night, I swear to God, there was a comedian that used the JFK murder for material. Really, he was criticizing the Warren Report. He stated that Dallas has the 6th floor museum, and that it is glass enclosed so it looks just like it did when JFK was shot. Because -there is no Oswald to be found! He said he thinks it is enclosed so people can't look out the window and say "No f---ing way!" On an HBO comedy show.

I haven't written you because I have been trying to get caught up at work, which has fallen dangerously behind. I continue to be disappointed that the CJ did not run my review of Selections.

Unsolved Mysteries on Jan. 6 ran a profile of Cyril Wecht and an unsolved murder. No JFK mention, but Chip Selby did get a credit. I have seen him listed as segment producer on "Encounters". Which has lots of UFO's, crop circles, ghosts, etc.

I don't see how you and Lil have handled such a volume of work over the years. My office runs me ragged. When you are gone there will be no central clearing house for the JFK material, except for maybe Jim Lesar. I know it sure as hell won't be me! And I wonder how organized Lesar is, I sent him $25 several months ago to join AARC, and have never heard from him. Strangely, he had written me to join, at the behest of the fellow who visited you some months back, whom I have never heard from again. Who knows.

Making my goal in 1995 to catch up on my paperwork, I remain yours truly,

Bill

PS One question to pester you with. What is your opinion of Dr. Pierre Finck being brought in on the JFK autopsy at the last minute?

It seems to me that they were afraid they would be criticized for using Humes and Boswell, who were not really competent, so they may have included Finck to sort of wave the magic wand of respectability over the proceedings.

Betsy noted that in JAMA, Finck really was careful and precise in his language, sometimes dodging questions in a rather sophisticated way. I assume that you noticed this too.
