

WILLIAM L. NEICHTER
ATTORNEY AT LAW
1313 LYNDON LANE
SUITE 115
LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY 40222
(502) 429-0266

October 19, 1993

Dear Harold:

It's me again! Here is an article on James Hosty in the Wall Street Journal. I imagine we'll be seeing a lot of this type thing the next five weeks or so. I'll also send to Wrone and others when I send them some pics.

Any comment on this article will be appreciated. Although some of it is foolishness, he certainly confirms your feelings about the FBI.

One of the things that has always amazed me about Oswald is the rather clear indication that he had outside income. The fact that he grossed $50 a week but gave Marina $170 the night before the assassination is pretty indicative that he was making some money somewhere. Of course, this seems to be a theme in Oswald's life.

Better do some work. I am going to have a couple of the better pics made into 6 x 9's if I can. Cheap. I wouldn't think about charging you! You and your family have been so nice to me, I owe you and Lil a debt I can never repay. Harold, you'll never know how much I wondered about this case and Garrison. Although thanks to you I can barely sleep at night, I often reflect on how much of an emotional and financial strain all of this has put on you two. Gives me something to think about besides the legal and tractor business, which are going well.

Go Phillies! I am so happy for Jim Fregosi, I hope they go all the way. Bring that World Series back to America.

Sincerely,

Bill

Say "Hi" to Lil.