Dear Harold:

I received your November 28, 1993 letter today to Dave Wrone. I see you would like me to be an executor.

I am honored. The number one thing is to be sure both you and Lil have proper Wills. The normal thing is to try to have local executors, but the most important thing is to have your Wills prepared, and the Hood College part clearly defined. Normally, each spouse leaves the other everything, except specific bequests. Be sure to specify what Hood College gets, and anything that does not go to Hood, like perhaps private correspondence.

Do not be like a client of mine, who came in and said "Mother just died and we need to change her Will!". Too late then!

I would serve only if free of charge, except for expenses, which would be travel costs, etc.

I enclose the PBS special and the CBS special. PBS' is better, has John Newman, Epstein, Odio, and Posner. CBS has Posner, Beverly Oliver, Jean Hill, Agent Rookstool, and Gus Russo, whom I don't know.

I have cued up Rookstool on CBS, just push in and watch. Keep these tapes, they are yours, I have my copyright infringing tape machine all hooked up now!

Got a nice letter and article from Gerry Ginocchio. I sent him the rest of Senator Cooper's stuff and more pictures.

Bought Robert Groden's new book, Killing of a President. Pictures good, text bad, but Altgens picture in Whitewash II is better than Groden's. He seems hung up on "fake autopsy" photos. Like Livingstone, his former buddy, ~~he~~ claims it was Billy Lovelady in doorway, but his enhancements sure look like Oswald. I feel PBS at least tried to be balanced. Odio sisters interview is very interesting. Enhancement of photographs of the Texas School Book Depository sixth floor perhaps show movement inside, but no rifle. PBS is three hours.

Love to Lil. Betsy says hi.

Sincerely,
