Dear Harold:

I got both of your letters yesterday. It was funny that you mentioned the Hermes typewriter, I was on my way to the typewriter repair shop to have mine tuned up. The dealer is a Hermes dealer.

The store had three ribbons left that the dealer says will fit your typewriter, so I bought them and am sending them to you. Hope they fit.

The only thing I saw in the New York Times about Jim Ray's parole bid was the enclosed picture. I bought Jim's book and thought it odd he does not mention you in the book.

The enclosed articles may be of some interest. Glad you were not injured in your automobile accident.

We are happy Lil's eye operation went well.

Sincerely,

 & Bets

PS I understand that they have a nice golf course there in Frederick! Thought that was a good piece of local journalism. Clinton has finally learned that the buck stops there, at his desk.
