Dear Harold:

I hope we have the wills put to bed. Now if I can get my 86 year old aunt to cooperate, I'll be caught up. She can't decide who to leave stuff.

On MLK day, I can't help but think that we still do not know who killed him. James Earl Ray may not be perfect, but I really admire you and Jim Lesar for trying to help him. I don't believe I really know how all that came about.

I saw two new books on the JFK case this weekend. One was Beverly Oliver's, which I was disturbed to see had a dust cover quote from John Newman, "author of JFK and Vietnam and Oswald and the CIA." I really hope Newman does not turn out to be another who hides stuff from you and thinks he has a scoop. Another was some book on the "mysterious deaths".

I may try to call you later this week and see if the wills are okay. Sorry for my procrastination, I guess I am getting as bad as Richard Gallen. But it does look like Gallen is coming through for you in the end, I hope Never Again does get out this spring. How does it feel to be 82 and to have published 4 books in two years? It makes me feel like either you are one hard working guy or I'm one lazy one. Maybe a little of both!
