

Dear Bill,

2/15/95

Brief and Hasty response to your 2/13 from the deep depths of NEVER AGAIN! proofs about which I'll be writing you soon. You and others.

Not only can't I take the time for the index you propose but it would be too short to mean anything. What I could list would be known in any event, that few.

Two small mistakes in will. I want to show it to Hood so they'll know no changes relate to it. When Church not away of busy weather precluded it. I've had a call. Someone is coming rather than me going there when the weather clears. One change, her correct name is Cathy Barbehenn, another on the old whatnot. Offering it to Hood.

People may be a good idea. It would be better not from me, though, and I can't depend on or expect anything from the publisher.

Elliot fine idea. I can do his Sunday show. The night one if he tapes, as he could if he read Case Open.

Thought you'd gone to Daytona.

We are both as we have been, thanks. Lil was to have had some tests today but weather causes postponement of them.

The forecast this time is for warmer, i.e., thawing fast. Old snow had not disappeared.

Mail was on time or a bit earlier despite enough snow and ice to close schools. A neighbor brought it and the papers in.

and thanks to you I gave him four Temples, which he appreciated. I've given him the bigger ones in the past for such favors and he and his wife loved them. Amazed at the sizes then.

Thanks again and best,
