

Dear Bill,

4/28/95

Rushing to catch up on yesterday's mail so I can get back to writing. I've seven chapters in rough on Hailer's Tale.

Re what you say in your 4/22, you'll see more on this when you read Waketh. Those unable to be honest with themselves are leading the attack on McNamara. Who has done a public service and should be listened to lest it happen again.

Glad Dick is getting along well. And that Case Open is still doing well there is encouraging. I'm surprised, given the competition for shelf space and with new books coming out all the time it is still on sale enough places for me to still be hearing about it from those who just got it.

You mention Bonders. Dave tells me thie their computer reflects orders for 800 copies of NEVER AGAIN! About which I've still heard nothing.

I agree there is nothing the FBI could have done to prevent OK City. But I do not know of any authority they need they do not have. The clamor for more power is for political benefit for the pole and for authorization for the FBI to be doing what it should not be doing.

IF it had ever thought of the right as it did of the left it would have commanders of those native nazi militias on their payroll.

I am inclined to believe that the word on NEVER AGAIN! is largely from my mention of it in Case Open.

I hope I can find a source of better ribbons. This one is fairly new, gets ink all over my fingers, and is paler one way than the other.

Please be alert to anything on Hailer's Tale, even reviews that I think will include some bad ones. The book is a disgrace. I'm astounded he would out his name on it or that RH would publish it.

Best to all,
