

Rt. 12, Frederick, Md. 21701
4/20/77

Dear Mr. Young,

This letter, returned to me today, is addressed to the man who signed himself as I address him, from Fort Meade.

He is there and the letter is deliverable.

He is probably at the National Security Agency, the Central Security Service or the Freedom of Information Center of the Army Intelligence Agency.

Perhaps he can be reached there by the code designation MIIA-GAF.

But he is there. His letter from there to me is dated April 6.

Why it was not delivered I do not know.

This is what is called a Freedom of Information appeal. The law specifies a time limit. To avoid any later problems I would much appreciate it if the letter were sent there again so that when received it will show the postmarking of the day I mailed it.

Because his letter does not indicate rank I assume he is a civilian.

Thank you very much.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg

To William H. Jenkins. First two organizations on letterhead, last on envelope.
