

OFFICE OF THE DEPUTY ATTORNEY GENERAL
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20530

FEB 1978

Mr. Harold Weisberg
Route 12
Old Receiver Road
Frederick, Maryland 21701

Dear Mr. Weisberg:

This is a partial and interim response to your letter of February 9, 1978, to the extent it involves your efforts to obtain access to any references to yourself or Mrs. Weisberg that may be contained in the released Hiss or Rosenberg records.

Enclosed are copies of my letters of this date to Professor Weinstein; Mr. Marshall Perlin, the attorney for the two sons of the Rosenbergs; and Ms. K. Randlett Walster, whose firm is representing Mr. Hiss. It seems to me that these are the requesters who are most likely to have indexed these records to the extent that references to you and Mrs. Weisberg would be retrievable. My personal relationships with all of these individuals are excellent, so I have real hope that they will try to help.

As soon as I hear anything, one way or the other, I will let you know.

Sincerely,

Quinlan J. Shea, Jr., Director

Harold W -

I saw no real reason to limit my requests to just the General Division records, even though the appeal we handled was just that competent. Maybe we'll get a ~~but~~
