Dear Mr. Weisberg:

This replies to your letter, dated 11 April 1977. Your letter was not addressed properly, and thus was not received here until 2 May 1977.

My previous letters to you, and particularly my replies to your continuing allegations of improprieties, have been as responsive as possible and comply fully with the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act. You have been advised by my letters of 6 April 1977 and 10 May 1977 of your rights under Title 5 U.S.C. 552 as amended by Public Law 93-502 to obtain judicial relief and I therefore consider this matter closed.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "William H. Jenkins", is written over a faint circular stamp.
