Harland F. Leathers, Esquire
Chief, General Litigation Section
Civil Division
Department of Justice
Washington, DC 20530

Dear Mr. Leathers:

Subject: Harold Weisberg v. United States General Services
Administration, USDC DC, Civil Action No. 2052-73
(Your Ref: JAxelrad:jgo: 145-171-122)

Enclosed please find one original and four executed copies of the revised third page of the answers to interrogatories of the Archivist of the United States dated March 15, 1974. Pursuant to your advice, the only change is that of Interrogatory No. 43.

Sincerely,

HAROLD S. TRIMMER, JR.
Acting General Counsel

Enclosure

38. Defendant objects to this interrogatory on the grounds that it is not relevant to the subject matter involved in the instant action.

39. Defendant objects to this interrogatory on the grounds that it is not relevant to the subject matter of the instant action.

40. No.

41. The transcript was classified under the provisions of Executive Order 10501, and, as was stated in No. 27, was not reclassified under the provisions of Executive Order 11652. I do not know the basis for classification relied upon by the classifier in 1964, other than the provisions of Executive Order 10501.

42. Section 798 of title 18, United States Code.

43. I am not qualified to answer this interrogatory. Such a decision would rest with the Department of Justice.

44. Defendant objects to this interrogatory on the grounds that it is not relevant to the subject matter of the instant action. Moreover, the interrogatory calls for a conclusion that I am not qualified to provide.

45. N/A.

46. Defendant objects to this interrogatory on the grounds that it is not relevant to the subject matter of the instant action. Moreover, the interrogatory calls for a conclusion that that I am not qualified to provide.

I have read the answers above, and they are true and complete to the best of my knowledge and belief.
