Dear Mr. Weisberg:

Reference is made to your letter of June 24, 1977, in which you related difficulties you are experiencing with Department of Defense Agencies' responses to your Freedom of Information requests.

You specifically expressed concern about the responses you have received from offices within the Department of Army and Air Force and the National Security Agency. I have forwarded a copy of your letter to each of these agencies and have relayed your desire for a complete response.

Sincerely,
