About this time, HAROHD HEISBERG steepend in establishing contacts with MAYNE through the medium of JOHN HEISBERG a professional undercover investigator who has been mentioned erriter in this report. It appears that WEISBERG was associated with one GARNEDY LICKSON and that they were endeavoring to discredit the Dies Committee by claiming that it was giving too much attention to Communists and not enough attention to opposing groups.

WEISBERG paid MAYNE to propare some material for the purpose of discrediting PELLEY and finally purchased some letters on which MAYNE had forged PELLEY's signature. These letters indicated that PELLEY and Congressman MARTIN DIES were friendly and that Congressman DIES was endeavoring to shield PELLEY. WEISBERG delivered these letters to Congressman FRANK E. HOOKER who introduced them in the House of Representatives for the purpose of defeating the Dies Committee appropriation for continued activity. MAYNE then appeared before the Dies Committee and admitted that the letters were forgeries. He claimed that he realized that WEISBERG was endeavoring to sabetage the Dies Committee and maintained that he submitted the letters to WEISBERG for the purpose of exposing his position.

It appears that WEISBERG paid MAYNE a total of approximately $107.00 for the letters and for his assistanco. It was indicated that WEISBERG doubtless suspected and may have known that the letters were forgeries but the tangible ovidence to prove this point was lacking. A Bureau Laboratory examination confirmed that the letters were forgeries.
