

China Charges

U.S. Threats

1 of 10/28/64
TOKYO, Oct. 27 (AP)—Communist China charged today that the United States is enhancing its military deployment in the Far East for "nuclear threats to China."

The charge was made by the New China News Agency, in commenting on the report that the United States has posed a squadron of 15 B-52 heavy bombers on the island of Guam, within about 2000 miles of China.
