

Ayub Speaks in Peking Urging Viet Settlement

By Vergil Berger
Reuters

PEKING, March 5—Pakistani President Mohammed Ayub Khan called today for a negotiated settlement to the war in Viet-Nam "which will bring peace with honor to all interested parties."

Such a solution, he told a crowd of about 10,000 persons here, should be based on justice and the principles governing relations between countries big and small. Chinese Premier Chou En-lai and President Liu Shao-chi were present.

Ayub said China and the United States are both great Pacific powers and must arrive at an accommodation based on mutual understanding.

Ayub was replying to a speech of welcome by Peking Mayor Peng Chen, who is also one of the top members of the Communist Party Politburo.

Peng attacked the U.S. over Viet-Nam in more vehement terms than any used so far by Chinese leaders during Ayub's state visit and declared:

"We, the people of all China, have made every preparation and resolutely support the Vietnamese people in launching counterattacks for self-defense in various ways against the U.S. aggressors."

The New China news agency quoted Peng as saying: "We have consistently maintained . . . that the participation of China is indispensable in the search for solutions to the problems of Asia and the world."

Ayub's remarks about Viet-Nam were greeted with a short burst of applause. This was a marked contrast with the enthusiastic, prolonged clapping that greeted his earlier remark that Pakistan and China were "united by a common determination to eradicate the last vestiges of imperialism and colonialism . . ."

He also was loudly applauded for his suggestion that the United Nations be reorganized, which China has long demanded, and his support of China's call for a world meeting to discuss eliminating nuclear weapons.

The New China news agency also carried a government statement that any effort toward peace talks on Viet-Nam through air strikes on North Viet-Nam is "wishful thinking."

The statement called anew on the United States for payment of "all the debts you owe the Vietnamese people in blood."

Johnson Talk of Peace Hypocrisy, Pravda Says

MOSCOW, March 5 (UPI)—The Communist Party newspaper Pravda accused President Johnson today of talking about peace while American forces expand the war in Viet-Nam. The military newspaper Red Star said the only solution to the problem lies in peaceful negotiations.

The two commentaries followed by a day a violent attack on the U.S. Embassy in Moscow by 2000 demonstrators. Soviet repairmen today began replacing hundreds of smashed windows in the Embassy and removing massive ink stains from the 10-story building. The workmen moved after the Soviet Union formally apologized for the damage.

Castroites Angered By Inaction of Reds

HAVANA, March 5 (AP)—Fidel Castro's followers are angered by the lack of Soviet and Red Chinese countermeasures to U.S. air attacks on Communist North Viet-Nam.

In government circles, the fear has been privately voiced that if the United States is not stopped in North Viet-Nam it will be encouraged to attack Cuba in the future.

Castro said Wednesday that if Cuba were closer to North Viet-Nam "it would send all available aid, including anti-aircraft guns and planes with pilots."

Rumanian President Hits U.S. 'Aggression'

VIENNA, March 5—Reuters
Rumanian President Gheorghe Gheorghiu-Dej tonight attacked what he called the war operations of the United States against North Viet-Nam, the Rumanian new agency Agerpress reported. He accused "aggressive imperialist circles" of trying to stifle liberation movements.