

June 7, 1940

Dear Cameron,

This hasn't broken here yet, and it may not.

Those 50 old airplanes that we don't need and are giving to the Allies are not old, but the most modern American planes. They are dive bombers, and at this moment the total supply of the Army is 91.

It looks like the opening wedge.

Harold