

1. How does an officer move ahead in the Army? What are the methods by which he may get promotion? Age? Seniority? Valor? Special attainment? ~~Krantz~~ Presidential order? Etc. Etc. Etc. In detail.

2. What are the branches of the Army? (including the smaller ones, like Public Relations)? What does each do? How does one get into a branch?

3. Description of Procurement and Assignment Service.

4. How do doctors, dentists get into Army? What tests are given them? How are they graded for commissions?

5. Ditto for nurses.

6. What's the setup with regard to medical students? Do they get first or second lieutenant commissions?

7. Everything on the WAACs

8. Everything about Air Corps and Ground crews (if not already sent).

9. At what stage in one's draft history may one enlist? How does one get a waiver from one's draft board to enlist, if necessary?

---

I haven't gotten anything on the Civil Aeronautics Administration. I see they've just ~~been~~ been given the right to train ground crews. This is very important. Dig up what you can from them, and send along to me. Max