Dear Harold:

Very pleased with the way you've worked so far. Your $50 check will reach you tomorrow, and we'll settle the rest later. Boy, I certainly seem to have figured wrong on the time! Sorry you're leaving town. How long will you be gone? I suggest you send me a list of names of those who've proven the best contacts--or, if there's somebody who can act for you during your absence, and who will do a good job, that's OK with me.

I'm anxious to get the material on ground training by the CAA. Also a listing of all CAA offices throughout the U.S. where one can register. Also, if the courses are open to women as well as men.

See Riley Moore again. Tell her I'm anxious to get that aviation chart that has been on her desk for weeks and weeks. Also, we must get more on the new Naval female auxiliary ~~XXXXXX~~ corps. See if you can get somebody to tell you (1) what the requirements will be; (2) how a woman will go about joining; ~~(3)~~ (3) duties of the position; (4) how many women will be taken on; ~~(5)~~ (5) how officers will be selected. Somebody in the Navy has this stuff! It shouldn't be a military secret, because by the time we come out, it will be in the papers.

Thanks for your swell cooperation.

Best,
