Mr. Max Lehman, Editor
Civil Service Leader
97 Duane Street
New York, New York

Dear Max:

I spent the morning at the Army and, while I can't deliver what I expected I would be able to when I spoke to you last night, I am sending you under separate cover quite a few chapters completely approved.

The two chapters which I thought I would be able to get this morning will be ready on Monday and if, as I presume, there will be no hitch, Schumbert's office will mail them to you.

Please let me know if there is likely to be anything else on this that you will want me to handle for you because I am busy and would like to be able to make plans.

My bill is as follows:

Cabs	$4.80
Phone calls	.30
Stamps	.15
Time (1 day, 4 $\frac{1}{2}$ Hours)	26.85

Total $32.10

Yours truly,

Harold Weisberg
