Dear Mr. Weisberg:

Allan Chase was just in my office and sang your praises.
That is why I am writing to you.

We are starting a new picture magazine, entitled PICTURE
SCOOP, which we hope will be as good as CLICK when it was edited by Allan.

We are open for all types of yarns. Rates for the first couple of issues will be a bit anemic, but once we are over the top you can rest assured that we will be decent.

Allan tells me that you always have a lot of hot stuff,
so burn up the mails and the wires.

Cordially yours,

Al Whyman (Clement J. Wyle)
Editor, PICTURE SCOOP
