Mr. Harold Weisberg
313 H Street, North West
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Weisberg:

Thanks for your letter of April 26. It's pretty hard to discuss your ideas for stories by mail. I expect to be in Washington some time within the next week or two, and I'd rather postpone taking them up until that time.

In the meanwhile, if anything else breaks, please keep me in mind.

I'll give you a ring when I plan to come to Washington and arrange to see you.

Kindest regards.

Sincerely,

Clement J. Wyle
