Mr. Harold Weisberg
313 H Street, North West
Washington, D. C.

Dear Harold:

Under separate cover, but via first class mail, I have sent you the final proofs on the McNutt article. We're a little delayed in getting proofs of the cover, but as soon as they come through, I'll ship one to you immediately.

In the meanwhile, we'd like to get on press as soon as possible and if you can get a final O.K. of the article without showing McNutt's office the cover, please do. You can tell them that the cover will be along next week.

Harold, as I said before, I need this O.K. of the article as quickly as you can get it. If there is any hitch, or if they won't pass the article without seeing the cover, please let me know.

Sincerely,

Al
