you think this is too much, let me know. If you want me to, I'll be glad to charge you the cheap cab rate that prevails here, but this is cheaper, for you. I'm going to continue using cabs wherever possible, however.

The other day I had a little trouble identifying myself as the PS fellow I was supposed to be. Can you send me a card, please?

I have made some arrangements with Navy and Marine Corps people that I think will yield some nice exclusives. In fact, I spoke to a Marine Publicist the night before he left for a certain place where there has been action. He knows pictures, and said he'd be sending some earmarked stuff back. I'm seeing some other people on some other work and will probably be able to line a little more up. Of course, in no case am I making any commitments.

Okay on the hold-up on the prostitution story. We are in perfect agreement on that score. However, I think there are possibilities in the special kind of gonorrhea story these guys can turn out. Why not get a summary of what they can say and do in pictures before you say no. Jesus, or one in every hundred people who should be interested in getting rid of it bought the magazine to see how it can be done in 5 days, that could be a lot of sales!

The purpose of the story is to say that G. need not be depressing, that it has been whipped, and here is what your government wants you about it, whether or not you have it, etc.

So far as the post office is concerned, I hadn't a chance to get in touch with them again yesterday. I'll try Monday, I hope. Re: Lucas' memo. I like the ones you checked, plus 1. I've been looking around on day care for children, as you may remember, because I suggested it some time ago. However I was under the impression that you wanting nothing for anything later than the third issue unless you said so. Tell me if I'm wrong. Also, do you expect the tank-tested story immediately? Yours
