Mr. Harold Weisberg
313 H. Street N. W.
Washington, D. C.

Dear Harold:

Sorry to hear that you are not feeling very well, but maybe the enclosed check will cheer you up. The check covers your statement contained in your letter of September 7th for expenses in the sum of $31.03, plus the $125.00 for the Tank Story. This sum of $125.00 is not to be regarded as a precedent for other yarns. I merely added the other $25.00 for budgetary conveniences, as a means of straightening out what I consider moral obligations in the past.

I can't pass judgment on the "Unsung Hero" series until I have more dope.

What about Wallace?

What about a lead story, which I should have by the end of this month? The Wallace story could reach me by the end of October as long as I know I'm getting it.

The Health Authorities here in New York absolutely refuse to cooperate with us unless request comes from Washington. What the hell can we do about it?

Will write to you early Monday about when I expect to be in Washington.

That Tank Story was terrific. What would you think on a story about General Marshal? The thought just came to me and I would like to get your opinion on it.

Anything new on Maloney?

With best regards, I remain,

Sincerely yours,

Alex J. Whyman
