3 Bodies Found at Mississippi Dam Where Rights Workers Disappeared bodies in graves at the site of June 21. a dam near Philadelphia, Miss., where three civil rights of FBI agents turned up the was found abandoned and |man, James Earl Chaney and | determine the cause of death. The FBI last night an-Michael Henry Schwerner, nounced the finding of three were last seen on the night of missing civil rights workers workers disappeared a month bodies late yesterday after burned on a dirt road off noon while digging in thick Route 21 about 13 miles north-The FBI said the bodies woods and underbrush several east of Philadelphia. were found in a wooded area hundred yards off Route 1. about six miles southwest of The agency said the bodies wagon was found is approxi-Philadelphia, where the three are are being removed to Jack-mately 20 miles from the The three, Andrew Good- be made to identify them and FBI said in a statement.

began June 22. The following The FBI said a search party day, their 1963 station wagon son, Miss., where an effort will graves found yesterday, the