Demand for India A-Bomb Expected As Aftermath of Chinese Explosion

The Washington Post Foreign Service friends either. Who can say ckpile of nuclear weapons or NEW DELHI, Oct. 16-Demands that India make atomic weapons are expected to grow here in the wake of the formal announcement claiming that a nuclear device has been exploded in China.

of an impending Chinese explosion had set off a spate of controversy over the nuclear issue in recent weeks. Ina nuclear device in 18 months. a dia sa

Prime Minister Lal Bahaence of nonaligned countries for his proposal to send a ban - the - bomb mission to China has strengthened advocates of a policy reassessment.

Use by China Feared

assumption that China will white skins and territories, never use nuclear weapons Krishna went on to say that turns out to be as facile and "they must be expected to foolishas the earlier belief remain essentially 'nonathat a socialist country never ligned' in any major inter-commits aggression?" asked Asian conflict." an editorial commentator in the New Delhi Statesman.

that India would lose its pointing to a recent official reasons of age and health. freedom of action in world statement in Parliament. Most commentators here affairs "if we become dependent on the U.S. or the U.S.S.R. or both. And too detonation of a first nuclear much trust, let us face it, device does not imply that the past in which he himself what the international situa- even nuclear bomb capable of tion will be 10 or 15 years delivery upon any target." hence?"

He did not urge immediate action to convert India's atomic energy program to military purposes, but suggested that India should The United States warning "reserve the right" to make the bomb in the future.

Similar View Voiced

A similar view has been expressed in the Hindustan spired stories emanating Times. Economist RajKrishna from the Indian Atomic En-lof the Indian Institute for ergy Commission have sug- Economic Growth argued gested that India could make that, "for very understandable reasons, the Russians and the Americans will continue to be horrified by the prospect of any serious involvement in dur Shastri's failure to win any military conflict between support at the Cairo confer. Asians and Asians. Western leaders would not want to get large nimbers of their white and affluent people drowned in any titanic encounter between alien floods of huma-conflict which is regarded as nity in Asia."

tive of American and Russian shchev. "What will happen if our diplomacy in Asia as "saving to comment on the an-accept the official Soviet ex-The commentator argued nouncement today beyond planation that he retired for cannot be placed in our good there is anything like a sot participated.

Sweden Expresses Concern Over Blast

Special to The Washington Post STOCKHOLM, Oct. 16 Swedish Premier Tage Erlander issued two statements here tonight, one expressing "deep concern" that the number of atomic nations has been increased by the addition of the Chinese and the other the hope that the new leaders of the Kremlin will follow the same policy of finternational, relaxation" practiced by Nikita Khrushchev,

What is most important in the view of officials here is what effect the explosion of the Chinese bomb may have on the Russo-Chinese conflict certain to have played a role Defining the main object in the ousting of Khru-

Although most Scandinavian leaders and newspapermen who came into contact with Khrushchev during his visit here last summer remember him as a tired old Indian spokesmen declined man, no one is prepared to