Saturday, Oct. 17, 1964 THE WASHINGTON POST A2

Johnson Tells Crowds About 'Exciting Day'

By Julius Duscha Staff Reporter

CINCINNATI, Oct. 16-Pres-, changes in the Soviet governident Johnson came to Ohio ment on Thursday.

and Kentucky tonight to tell the folks about what an "exciting day" it had been in the White House.

Mr. Johnson's evening of campaigning began with an presidential election Nov. 3. informal talk to a crowd of several thousand at the greater Cincinnati airport, which President said the voters not is in Covington, Ky., just only will be electing a Presiacross the Ohio River from Cincinnati.

From the airport he went to downtown Cincinnati where he spoke to a large crowd in Government Square. Later in Barry Goldwater, Mr. Johnson the evening he went to Dayton, Ohio, for another speech. that the President demon- the Chinese Communists have strated his just-folks manner exploded a nuclear weaponthe best.

did not like to talk too long government. at an airport because people are uncomfortable standing and airplanes are making noise.

But Mr. Johnson said, "these are sobering hours in the hishe thought it only fair to share some of his "exciting day" with the people who came out to see him.

The President said that he was up at 6:30 a.m. and before newspapers as well as numerous reports and cables.

planted two trees on the White the people make in the elec-House lawn" because it is tion. customary for Presidents to do so.

"Then," Mr. Johnson went are right," he declared. on, "I visited for about an The President said th sador.

Ambassador Dobrynin told him, the President said, about from the course we are purthe many problems in the So-suing." viet Union and about the

In downtown Cincinnati, the President told the crowd that the future course of a newly troubled world will hinge on the outcome of the American

Speaking to a large crowd in downtown Cincinnati, the dent but "electing the kind of life you will have in the future."

Without mentioning his rival, GOP presidential nominee said that in such times as today-when the Russians have But it was at the airport changed their government and there is need for stability, He-noted that ordinarily he strength and steadiness in "A President cannot make the world sure for America, but he can and he must make the world sure of America,' Mr. Johnson said.

The President went on to tory of the world" and he said say that the world is not going to respond to partisan appeals but only to "effective performance of the bipartisan system in the American way.

"We must show stability to match our strength," he said. going to his office read 15 "We must show steadiness to match our strength. The meaning of the future can be in-Following that, he said, "we fluenced by the choice that

"Be sure you know what you are doing and be sure you

The President said that in hour with the Soviet Ambas-lits present turbulent state, the world must be assured that "America will not turn

Jibing at some of Sen. Goldwater's charges, the President said:

"Some people may say that we are wild spenders but in their hearts they know they are wrong."

He thus reversed a Goldwater slogan to the effect that "in your hearts you know he's right," meaning the GOP nominee.