U.S. Admits Arms Talks With Jordan and Others

Associated Press

arms supplies with a number of additional arms to Jordan. of Middle East countries.

McCloskey has been asked repeatedly about reports the United States is nearing more questions, McCloskey agreement to supply the Arab added that talks are "continukingdom of Jordan with arms ing," and revealed that coun-to modernize its army. He tries involved are Jordan, also was asked regularly Saudi Arabia, Lebanon, Iraq about the status of negotiations on Israel's request for U. S. arms, including tanks.

The State Department's of- | Though he has consistently

"There have been discus-Press officer Robert sions with a number of Middle East states along the lines you suggested,," he said.

> Immediately flooded with and Israel.

> Newsmen were puzzled by the mention of Iraq. While Iraq received some military aid before the 1958 coup, no such U.S. aid was forthcoming after Iraq left CENTO (Central Treaty Organization). From then on, Iraq was supplied mainly by the Soviet Union, although it received some spare parts from Britain. McCloskey later confirmed that discussions are going on with Iraq.