Dear Mr. Weisberg:

Sidney Kaufman tells me that you have some unusually interesting material for the June issue of our magazine. I would like very much to hear further from you about this. Will you let me know more details by return mail? Sidney has opened up to us a very attractive prospect of your serving as a Washington correspondent for the magazine. I would like to discuss this further with you. For the moment however, we can manage to pay $15. for an article for this month, if the arrangements are mutually satisfactory and take up a regular arrangement a little later.

Hoping to hear from you promptly,

Sincerely yours,

Louis Harap
