

Dear Louis,

Here is the Polish Underground piece, picture and caption material. Sorry it is late but I couldn't do it sooner.

After much thought it seemed to me that the Western Front angle might better be done in an editorial note than in the text. There are many reasons for this, but one is the distinct possibility that by the time the issue is out there may be a Western front.

You will notice the piece is two pages longer than you wanted. Had I cut it down I would have taken out the two sections marked in the left-hand border. However, I thought perhaps it would be best if you cut it to suit yourself. You will find you can lift it right out without changing more than a word.

I promised to get the Smythe story off today, Thursday, but I may be a day late on that, too. I'm quite tired. But I'll have it off by the end of the week, certainly.

Yours,

Harold Wesiberg
