 Dear Sir, I have been giving you some addresses (yifnebiani) they raised Here is a report on what I was able to accomplish this morning and this afternoon. ^(see page 2) I would, in all probability, have placed the answers to all the queries in your letter of 7/23/42 in the mail, because I was wrong when I said they close down at 1 on Saturdays.

 If I can I will send you the approximate dates of the Post Office.
 The pamphlet "Military Service" is in the mail to you.
 Forms for the Army Specialists Corps. I'm told there is but one form for entering (enclosed) and other forms are filled out, if needed, after

Yours very truly,
 The "Anti-Communist Manual" is in the mail to you. Two copies are in the mail to you. This is a long address, but I finally got the superior office. He took care of it.

 Air Corps Recruitment. This is a situation similar to the Navy situation

I reported yesterday. Everything is being revised. I'm sending Yarnon what I got today, and when ready, send the new stuff when it is ready.
 If possible, send him proofs. I'm not hopeful he'll get in in time to do any good in this connection. It was suggested that it would be to send a copy of his ms to Information and Education Division, Public Relations Office, VAAAF, 712 Maritime Bldg, Wash, D.C. They will go over it and correct any mistakes and mail it back by the beginning of the day after receipt. Corrections have been made on the material I'm sending him.

Army Classification System. Wrong office and wrong building. I have finally located what I believe to be the right place, and I'll check it Monday. This was near the office of classification of civilian employees. Somebody has been giving you some bad addresses (incidentally, they raised hell with the cab expenses).

Here is a report on what I saw I had no proper a si ereH Army school staff. The address you gave was not correct.

there, is a bus station. However, if you are looking for the station, the western side of town and will be there Monday SA\85\7 to tell you Schubert gave me the approximate dates of the Post articles. If I can I'll pick them up later tonight, if that section of the paper is open. Otherwise I'll do it Monday.

Your query re West Point. I spoke to the National Army after reading Y's note to you as follows:

Army of the United States, the National Guard, and the former National Guard which, had been organized by the members of the organized reserve, and the Air Corps Recruitment. This is a list of the members of the Air Corps Recruitment.

Admission is by appointment only. However, you may be able to get in this morning. Ignore the certificate number on the material you sent me, which I return herewith. The certificate number appears to be when I saw Ricky Moore yesterday. He was carrying a briefcase on a lighter that air, which is not a good idea. The name was Hancock at Navy Aeronautics this morning. The certificate number is corrected by her, for you. If she has anything else to say, please let me know. This article is under revision, and she suggested that I check with the Navy people at Church St. to keep your post. Corrections have been made and receipt. I have

I'll probably have to go out to Gravelly Point Monday or Tuesday, so please check if you can. I'll check if you can. I believe I have what I need send me any aviation queries you have at the moment. Thus I might be able to save you some dough, because a round trip will cost at least two bucks by cab. I realize you might not be able to send them now, but I thought I'd make the recommendation on the chance you could. I don't want to waste any dough for you.

I think ~~ix~~ I now have good contacts for the rest of the things you want, and with more breaks than we've had the past few days, we might be able to get this all cleaned up earlier than the end of next week.

Yours

Harold Weisberg.
