Dear Harold:

Here are the two chapters in question. As you see, the material is relatively simple, and apparently there had been no question about it when it went through the first time.

In any case, make any changes, corrections, or additions necessary, and have the officer give you the OK immediately. In the event they want ~~to~~ you to leave out some of the stuff, I hope you'll argue them out of it (unless, of course, the material they refer to is out of date). If anything, these chapters should be more, not less, complete than they are now.

I imagine there will be little difficulty about this; and I assume you already have your appointment, through Captain Schubert. When you get the OK, which I trust will be immediately (for a change), you can send the chapters back to me. Should any hitch develop, phone Schubert first to help you out, then (only if necessary) phone me.

Best regards.

Sincerely,

Maxwell Lehman
